Travelling allowances

Duties qualifying for the payment of travelling allowances for Members of the Council

At the Policy Committee meeting on 27 June 2001, the rules for Members claiming travelling expenses were summarized as being under three main headings. Below is a summary of the types of allowable claims under each heading:

1. Attending meetings which are called by the Council

- Attendance at Committees and Sub Committees – these are deemed to include Working Parties, Steering Groups, Consultative Committees, Best Value Reviews, etc.
- Meeting between Member(s) and Officers – formally arranged by the appropriate Corporate Director or Head of Service in connection with the purpose or discharge of the Council's functions.

2. Carrying out duties on behalf of the Council

- Site visits and public meetings – attendance at site visits and formal meetings with the public or developers with other Members and Officers of the Council to which the Member has been invited by the appropriate Corporate Director or Head of Service..
- Opening ceremonies, presentation of certificates, awards or other similar ceremonies – attendance at opening ceremonies or other ceremonies for the purposes of carrying out the presentations etc, presentation of certificates and awards.
- Attendance at Planning or Other Local Inquiry – where a Member has been specifically requested in writing by the Chief Executive or appropriate Corporate Director to give evidence (or prepare) on behalf of the Council.
- Official tours, civic days, etc – attendance at official tours, civic or similar occasions subject to prior approval of appropriate Committee or appropriate Corporate Director.
- Chairmen and Vice Chairmen - attendance by the Chairmen or Vice Chairmen of the Council (and the local Ward Member) at civic ceremonies or functions, etc.
- Opening of tenders – attendance at the opening of tenders when specifically requested to attend by the appropriate Corporate Director or Head of Service.

3. Attending meetings of other bodies at which Members are representing the Council

- Joint meetings between the Council, other local authorities and other bodies subject to such meetings being approved in advance by Committee or the appropriate Corporate Director.
- Conferences, seminars, etc – attendance at seminars, courses, “teach-ins”, or similar occasions subject to the approval of the appropriate Committee or appropriate Corporate Director in consultation with the Chairman of the Committee.
- Outside bodies – attendance at formal meetings of outside bodies as an elected representative of the Council, the subject of which has received Council approval as being to further the interests on the functions of the Council or local government generally.
- Other – in those circumstances where a Corporate Director is satisfied that had time permitted the Council would have authorized the attendance of a Member at a meeting or function, the purpose of which is related to a function or duty of the Council, provided such approval is given in advance of duty being undertaken.
- For all other meetings and duties, for example meetings with constituents, attending Parish Council

Meetings as elected Members of wards, no travelling expenses may be claimed.

Travelling rates

The rates of travel by a Member's motor vehicle in 2010/11 are based on the HMRC approved mileage rates as agreed by Council on 28 July 2010.

The rate of reimbursement for approved mileage is:

- 40p per mile for the first 10,000 miles pa.
- 25p per mile for mileage over 10,001 miles pa.

- Passenger rate is 5p per passenger per mile (max 4 passengers per journey).

- Bicycle allowance: 20p per mile.

Subsistence allowances and rates 2010/11 (with effect from 28 July 2010)

Subsistence allowances may be claimed to meet the costs of meals, refreshments, accommodation etc, in connection with approved duties, and the rates shall not exceed:

- In the case of an absence, not involving an absence overnight, from the usual place of residence:
 - of more than 4 hours, £6.20 for breakfast (£7.59 in London)
 - of more than 4 hours, £8.57 for lunch (£10.84 in London)
 - of more than 4 hours, ending after 7pm, £10.60 for an evening meal (£14.08 in London); provided that, for meetings such as Council or Committee meetings, meals or refreshments may be provided by the Council, including on occasions where the absence from the residence may not exceed 4 hours.

Where such meals are provided or paid for separately by the Council, the appropriate subsistence allowance shall not be paid to a Member, unless the Member has unforeseen commitments that prohibit the taking of the meal.

- In the case of an absence overnight from the usual place of residence, £95.00, or, for such an absence overnight in London or an annual conference of the Local Government Association or such other association of bodies as the Secretary of State may designate, £125.00. The cost for overnight accommodation above these limits will not be reimbursed but the Councillor is entitled to pay the difference.

- The actual reasonable costs of meals taken on trains may be reimbursed.

- All claims should be backed up with receipts.

Child care and dependant carer's allowance

A child care and dependant carer's allowance scheme was introduced on 1 April 2003. The child care and dependant carer's allowance increased in line with the minimum wage to £5.80 (£5.93 with effect from 1 October 2010) with a maximum amount of 5 hours able to be claimed in any one day. This may be claimed when a carer for a dependant has been engaged to enable a Member of the Council to carry out an approved duty. A carer will be any responsible person who does not normally live with the Member as part of that Member's family.

Full details of the child care and dependant carer's allowance scheme are contained within the "Scheme of Members' Allowances" document.

Payment of allowances

Basic and special responsibility allowances will be paid monthly.

Any Member not wishing to claim these allowances should inform Diccon Pearse, Corporate Director, in writing.

Travelling and subsistence will be paid on receipt of duly completed claim forms with supporting receipts.

Social Security and Housing Benefits Act 1982

For the purposes of this Act, any Member who claims Members' allowances is technically employed by the Council and can claim sick pay from the Council. There are several conditions, and the claimant must not be over the age of 65 (60 for females). To comply with this scheme, a Member must notify illness on the first day, but in any event not later than the fourth day and on the eighth day produce a Doctor's note. Sick payments will be made by the Council for a period of 28 weeks, thereafter by the Department of Work and Pensions.
