Qualifying benefits for council tax discount for severely mentally impaired people

To qualify to be disregarded as severely mentally impaired, a person must be entitled to one of the following benefits, or, in the case of a benefit which ceases to be payable on reaching pensionable age, have been in receipt of that benefit until it ceased for that reason.

- 1. incapacity benefit under section 30a of the Social Security (Contributions and Benefits) Act 1992;
- 2. an attendance allowance under section 64 of that Act;
- 3. a severe disablement allowance under section 68 of that Act;
- 4. the care component of a disability living allowance under sections 71 of that Act, payable at the highest rate under section 72(4)(a) or at the middle rate under section 72(4)(b) of that Act;
- 5. an increase in the rate of disablement pension under section 104 of that Act (increase where constant attendance needed);
- 6. a disability working allowance under section 129 of that Act for which the qualifying benefit is one falling within subsection (2)(a)(i) or (ii) of that section, or income support, and the applicable amount formerly payable included a disability premium, or is a corresponding Northern Ireland benefit;
- 7. an unemployment supplement under Part 1 of Schedule 7 to that Act;
- 8. a constant attendance allowance under:-
  - (i) article 14 of the Personal Injuries (Civilians) Scheme 1983; or
  - (ii) article 14 of the Naval, Military and Air Forces etc. (Disablement and Death) Service Pensions Order 1983 (including that provision as applied, whether with or without modifications, by any other instrument);
- 9. an unemployability allowance under article 18 of either of the provisions referred to at (7) above
- 10. income support where the applicable amount includes a disability premium in respect of which the additional condition in paragraph 12(1)(b) of Schedule 2 to the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987 is satisfied
- 11. incapacity benefit under section 40 and 41 of that act.
